Learning behaviours

Which learning behaviours have you used today?

On Friday at the Mad Hatters' tea party we saw lots of learning behaviours from the children, they were using their imaginations, understanding and helping others, improving and concentrating, they were fantastic!

Welcome to the school Council

Mrs Edwards will be meeting with our school council regularly. We are looking forward to finding out what great ideas they have to continue to help us improve school.

Learning at The Ellis

The Mad Hatters tea party on Friday was a great success, thank you to everyone who helped by organising costumes, donating cakes and raffle prizes and for coming to join in with reading and eating cake! We have certainly launched our library, now known as:

'The Ellis in Wonderland'.

We raised around £580, we have donated £100 to Macmillan Cancer Support, some has gone towards the fabulous story teller Mary and the rest will go towards books and storytelling props. 'Catch yourself reading'

As well as having lots of fun we learnt how important reading is and how if we use our imaginations we can turn anything into a story. Thank you Miss Saunders for organising the event.
